OPERA AMERICA

OPERA America, the champion for opera across North America since 1970, leads stakeholders from all sectors of the industry in defining the creative, business and civic practices needed to ensure the continued vibrancy of the art form. Based in New York City at its National Opera Center, a custom-built rehearsal and performance facility for the opera field, OPERA America supports new works, audience engagement, artist and leadership development, and a sustainable environment for the future of opera in America.

On the occasion of its 50th anniversary in 2019–2020, OPERA America will lead the field in celebrating a half-century in the establishment of opera as an American art form.

Sponsored E-Blasts

Sponsored e-blast ads submitted as a single graphic must be 580 px wide and of any height. Please include a click-through link (without tracking codes) and image alt-text.

If preferred, materials may be submitted as HTML by providing an HTML table (exactly 580 px wide) with image tags in the table. Images (JPEG or PNG only) must be included as externally hosted links. HTML code must not include background images or head/body tags. All CSS must be inline; font and link attributes will not be implemented from <BODY> and should be inline.

Sponsored e-blast advertisers will receive a proof 48 hours before distribution for approval. Design/layout changes may incur an additional fee.
BOOKING INFORMATION

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS
1. Contact Stephanie A. Carnright, organizational membership coordinator, at SCarnright@operaamerica.org or 646.585.4284 to discuss your advertising options.
2. Complete and return the OPERA America advertising contract that follows.
3. Complete payment by check or credit card according to the timeline outlined on the previous page.
4. Submit advertisement art to SCarnright@operaamerica.org according to the timeline and specifications outlined on the previous page.

CONTRACT REGULATIONS
Payment
- For all bookings, a 50% down payment is due at the time of contract. The balance on single bookings is due by the specified art deadline. For packages, the balance on each placement is due by its corresponding art deadline. For ads booked less than two weeks before the reservation deadline, the full balance is due at the time of booking.
- Advertisers are responsible for any debts incurred by agencies in the advertiser’s name.

Cancellation
- If one or more booking in a package is canceled prior to the associated reservation deadline, a refund will be issued for the prorated portion of the package down payment; package pricing for future bookings will be adjusted to reflect the reduced number of bookings.
- Cancellations of Opera America magazine advertisements must be made in writing. Cancellations may be made prior to the reservation deadline at no penalty. Advertisers who cancel after the reservation deadline but before the art deadline will incur a fee equal to 50% of the reservation total. Cancellations following the art deadline will incur a fee equal to 100% of the reservation total.
- Cancellations of OperaLink banner advertisements and sponsored e-blasts following submission of art files will incur a fee equal to 50% of the reservation total.

General
- Advertisers will receive a complimentary copy of the magazine or e-mail with their advertisements.
- Advertisers are solely responsible for the accuracy and quality of their materials and for securing necessary permissions for media used in the ad.
- OPERA America reserves the right to reject or cancel ads deemed unsuitable for publication.
