OPERA America

Intent to Apply

The Robert L.B. Tobin Director-Designer Prize

The Robert L.B. Tobin Director-Designer Prize is a biennial program offered as part of OPERA America's continuing effort to foster emerging opera artists. The program is intended to bring new talent to the forefront and connect directors and designers early in their opera careers with those who are in a position to advance their work. Designer- or director-driven teams must select a work that deeply resonates with the team from an OPERA America-approved list of operatic works. Original submissions will translate the team's meaningful response into a unique concept and design for the selected work. Four teams will be invited to turn speculative ideas into a full design presentation.

Each team must comprise a minimum of one stage director and a minimum of two creative designers. Each team must identify a team representative who will serve as the project's fiscal agent and as OPERA America's primary contact.

Prior panelists recommend that you start by listening to the music before reading the libretto to find the piece that resonates with you. You should feel and develop an emotional response. You have to feel deeply and fully, then translate that into the design.

Reference scores are available upon request. Please contact Noelle Deutsch at NDeutsch@operaamerica.org if you would like to access these for research.
